

The Hastings Center

Recreating the Wild

DE-EXTINCTION, TECHNOLOGY, AND THE ETHICS OF CONSERVATION

Can new genetic technologies “bring back” extinct species?

What should the guiding ideals of conservation be in the age of biotechnology?

A discussion and reception celebrating the publication of The Hastings Center’s special report on de-extinction.

Guest speaker:

Gregory Kaebnick
Research Scholar and Editor,
Hastings Center Report

Moderator:

Mildred Solomon
Hastings Center President

The Hastings Center is located on Malcolm Gordon Rd. off Rt. 9D.
Space is limited. RSVP to vizzis@thehastingscenter.org or call 845-424-4040 x202.

Sunday, September 17th • 4:00 PM

on the grounds of The Hastings Center overlooking the Hudson River